ENGLISH, SCIENCE or MATHS
the mania series

Problem-solving and Revision

These best-selling packs develop numeracy, literacy and science skills by presenting multi-choice SATS-style questions. Pupils must win points to escape from various motivating mazes. Challenging puzzles can be tackled between games or separately, plus they can design their own mazes, 'play' the games on their own or compete against friends (who'll get the hi-score?) on a network or even the Internet — WordMania and MathMania come in separate packs for KS 2 (7-11) or KS 3 (11-14). ScienceMania is only available for KS 2 (7-11).

READING ADVENTURES FOR YOUR PC OR VLE
seldadore tales & stig of the dump

Adventure games to get pupils reading for meaning

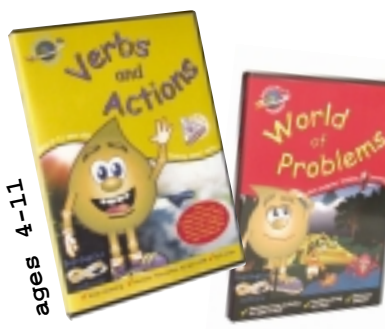

With their knowledge of the early chapters of the ever-popular book Stig of the Dump — and clues they find on the screen — pupils type instructions (e.g. GO NORTH) for Barney who must prepare Stig's cave for winter. Thus they develop spelling and a greater understanding of text. In Seldadore Tales they rescue villagers from starvation with the help of a map for each of the difficulty levels plus 20 worksheets. Both packs include solutions and teaching ideas. Run them on stand-alone or networked machines or use your VLE's collaboration features to encourage pupils to share solutions!

LITERACY, ESL, EAL & SEN
worlds of verbs & problems

Get kids talking and solving problems

World of Verbs challenges children to think of and type a verb (or click it in a list) to see if our ever-popular alien Scally can 'do' it. Over 400 verbs in past or present tense encourage them to discover verbs and record them in a word book. It's the perfect way to develop spelling and vocabulary skills. World of Problems sees Scally lost in a maze — figure out what the maze objects do, then help Scally and his pals escape. Eight environments and 25 difficulty levels mean 200 mazes in all — and you can design your own. Both packs (supplied separately) focus on language, thinking and co-operation skills.

EARLY YEARS & S.E.N
speaking for myself plus

Develops Communication, Cognitive and Reading Skills

Speaking and listening skills are fundamental to children's development, and those who lack a good grounding often find formal education a challenge. Speaking for Myself PLUS tackles this problem head on with tried-and-tested interactive learning tasks that also get children used to using a computer. Originally designed for SEN, this top-selling pack also proves its worth every day in mainstream inclusive classrooms. Sixty on-screen flash cards, fifteen two- and three-word talking stories, eight singalong animated nursery rhymes, and 5 games/diversions plus extra flash cards and stories to print from the CD.
